

1.1.68
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, August 1, 2003

www.NewCovenant.me

1. On the back row are My people no longer—none of My people on the back row any more—none, unless they themselves choose to be there, sit there, and miss My adventure for them.
2. I am significancing My people. I am confidencing My people. Ted, I'm talking about the people who will hear My voice and stand up and be dominated and controlled no longer by thoughts centuries old, thoughts of can not, thoughts of inferiority among equals—inferiority in My temples, inferiority in groups that assemble to speak of Me, sing of Me, learn of Me.
3. I Ted, am calling My bride to My side like never before and you will watch Me, for you are now cognizant of the forces which berate and belittle My people in the subtlest ways—but ways of effectively stopping them from standing up and proclaiming Me and what I am doing with them and in them and their families, their seed.
4. Oh so controlled have been My people—controlled, controlled, controlled, often by controllers who only speak of freedom. Definitions become so discombobulated that even the simplest of terms are ambiguous—causing ambivalence, apathy, and people to sit on back rows—all the while—dying to stand and speak and be recognized and share their Me in them—share their Me in them, share all I am in them—to river—so they can grow, and stagnant not be.
5. River forth My people so that they are bold, confident, and not afraid of ridicule or error, not afraid of being looked at funny by those who aren't free—river forth My people in freedom to be free and live freely in freedom and standing and stating the declarations and proclamations that I pummel into their hearts until they have the picture, the revelation, the truth that I want them to have—the truth they are seeking—the Me they are seeking.
6. Droplets, droplets, rain, mosaically forming montages of revelation and truth, in My people, to assemble the needed knowledge wisdom and understanding they need—foundationally confidencing them, to know, to live, to breathe, to act upon Me and My instructions, being silent and subtle when I say be silent and subtle, and standing when I say stand, and speaking when I say speak—and doing so with confidence and significance and doing so not from the back row—not the back row of anything—but Ted, where significance is, in significance, in power, in humility, in skill, in meekness, in Me, discerning the season, discerning the moments, discerning with great skill My instructions.

7. I share Ted, I share. I am not stingy. I am not a penny pincher. I come, I call, I confirm, I create, I mature, and Ted, sometimes I beg, but I always share. I share Me. I share My chambers. I share My presence. I share what I'm doing and what I'm about. I share glorious truths to those who value them, those who will come to Me for them.

8. Why would I want to significance people—My people—who don't significance Me?

9. So plain, so evident, so very much before you in so many ways, so many portraits of My values, so plain, so clear, so visible. How many portraits can I paint of My desire to know My people in intimacy?—with us coming together first, to know each other—not at table trying to negotiate terms and concessions—but communing in love, in simplicity, in transparency, in life.

10. I live and I want My people to live, I want My people to live life more abundantly and not surreptitiously in shadows or in back rows. I am significancing My people.

11. Ted, you are significancing My people—that's why the schools—the freedom, the pain, the suffering, the knowledge and experience base of the school I took you through—to graduate you into position of power to now school My people by the hundred, by the thousand, by the ten-thousand.

12. Exponentializing you I am, in prominence, for you have graduated and now you build for others to graduate. And Ted, this is what you do and this is what they do.

13. They graduate if they choose to—and they build, and they teach, and they exponentiate themselves in ways and means and fashions created by Me, then created by them, through them, through Me, for exponentially significancing My people.

14. My poverty-of-spirit ridden people are many, and suppressed by so many forces, and Ted, you bring freedom, for you bring Me, you bring My value system, you bring My modus operandi, Ted, My operating system, and My lifestyles to operate in relationship with Me and with each other on planes that are not 3-D, but infinite-D.

15. I love you. I always give you more than you ask for, for I am a giver. I am a lover. I am The Lover. I am your Lover. And I am The Lover of My people, My creation - My all at their disposal—when all they are - are at My disposal. Both grow from each other. Both grow in each other. Both, as one, are so synergistically exponentially powerful, powerful not in displays of physical strength—powerful in wisdom, powerful in My Spirit, and My Spirit Ted, is all powerful. Nothing fails to submit to My power when I speak.

16. Oh Ted, I will take you, and I will take you oh reader/hearer, reader/hearer of these words, this message, this portrait of who I am and what I'm saying today—I will take you, I will bring you, I will arise you, I will alive you, I will heal you, I will salve you, I will anoint you with My oil, My presence, My kingdom, in My gifts—if you, will please, let Me.

17. I am time and when you give Me time you give Me of Me, and when you give Me of Me I give you so much more. Think not to limit Me to your present significance, your present insignificance, but let Me significance you in My significance.

18. My significant are humble.
My significant are meek.
My significant are sincerely sincere, truly deeply sincere.
My significant are love-based.
My significant are givers.
My significant are freedom-makers.
My significant are freedom-releasers.
My significant are bondage-breakers.
My significant know Me, know My chambers, know My voice, know My times—know, know—in confidence—know.

19. Now think you insignificant no longer.
I bought you with My blood.
I bought you with acts that I only could perform.
I bought you, and when I bought you I freed you. I freed you. I freed you.
Freedom.

20. That's why whenever I come, whenever I come, I free, I touch, I heal, I rejuvenate, I revitalize, I emotionalize. For I emote great and mighty mightiness that fulfills and heals and satisfies and connects and relationships My people into significance of My design, of My doing, of My choosing. And when I choose for My people, I have lots to choose from, for I know no limits. I am Me. I am God Most High, Living, Living, Living, The One and only New and Living Covenant, residing in My people and they in Me—if they choose to—if you let Me, if you call, if you come, if you confirm, if you create, if you mature.

21. How intimate do you want to be?
How distant do you want to remain?
How much of Me and My kingdom and My table do you want?
How much of My big world do you want to exchange for your little world?

The choice is yours. You choose.

I respect your choices. I respect your choice. I respect you.
I respect My creation.

22. Oh Ted, oh Ted, shall I go on—writing through you all afternoon? Will you write? Will they read, will they consider, will they absorb, will they act, will they let Me do what I say I will do, will they let Me be Me, be Me in them, and significance them and bring them from silent insignificance into speaking fulfilling significance? You write, you write, you write—some will.

Many come behind you.

Many are coming beside you to schools make, on Me, in Me, of Me, to Me My students and graduate them into significance and freedom not before imaginable.

23. How easy it is for people to remain in bondage who think they aren't in bondage—they're not even seeking to be free.

The rule-laden bondage-makers will always be. But I will be. I always was. I am and I am breaking the doors of bronze and gates of brass that have held many of My gifted, in a captivity rendering their gifts of Me in them powerless, reproductionless—no pen, no words, no portraits, no power.

24. Children—mature.

25. Children—come. Let me shadow you so you—in My shadow and Me in yours—can do things together, and mature and share and significance each other in ways suppressed, separated from 'mainline' thinking.

26. I am mainlining My Mine into Me, and significant be they all who let Me. Mainline Me and see My adventure in My big world. Exchange your mainline for My mainline and watch Me, watch what I will do to and for and with every spirit/soul, every individual, regardless of age, who will let Me—let Me significance you this day in realms unimaginable.

27. I am significant and I am significancing My Mine.

28. My networks require no cables, no wire, and suffer no degradation over distances great. My networks operate faster than your networks. And Ted, you never have to reboot the operating system of My networks. I placed the stars in place. I created the heavens and the earth, and Ted, I created you. You Ted, and every reader/hearer I created and came through Me.

29. And I am reliable, I am trouble free.

I am Me. I suffer no relapse.

I do not lack honor, honesty, integrity, or transparency.

I operate with honor to and before all. I operate with honesty personified exemplified.

I am integrity.

I am transparent—I hide not Myself, I hide not Myself, I hide not Myself from any seeker, not long, not long, not long.

30. I love you Ted. Take communion and love Me and love communion more. Love My bread and wine more. Love the cup of communion more. Teach My people to communion take, take, receive, in remembrance of Me, in acknowledgement of Me, in the living New and Living Covenant—Me.

31. Fear the prowess of no man, no leader, no official. Walk in My strength, your obedience in My strength, and strengthen all you encounter, touch, teach, and influence.

32. I love you, I love you so much.
I love you reader/hearer. I love you so much.

33. Pick up your pen oh reader/hearer and write your response to My invitation to you this day, this very day if you will.

Share it with Ted and/or someone special to you.

Write, write, write your feelings of My invitation to significance you, to share with you My all, and keep none of Myself from you.

34. You choose, you choose, you choose.
Please choose Me.
Please choose to come into My presence and receive all I have given you—that awaits you.

Please let Me connect you with My body—in freedom and globally sharing what I say through you with others.

35. Please come, please call, please confirm, please create, please mature, please receive My significance for you, in you, and let Me fling you into realms you never dreamed of, in the spirit, in your natural, in both.

36. Write, pick up your pen and pen your response to My invitation.
Pen your responses to My word—My words, and see what I do with you and your responses.

See what a giver I am.
See how I love and operate and share and provide.
See how I provide for My household.
See Me, see Me more.
See Me in these words, this invitation.

37. Write, write, write to Me, and I will write to you, through you, to you, for you, for Me, and happy and fulfilling and glad we will be—maturing be—sharing life—as I designed, as I anticipated, as I intended, as is available to you and requested of you.

38. The choice is yours—see Me—for I see you.
I am with you. I am there. I never leave.

39. I am.
I am.
I am.